thoroughbred sire tops maternal grandsire charts

Murrtheblurr's daughters produced 10 barrel horses that earned $135,489 in 2005 for an average of $13,549. The deceased 1977 chestnut stallion was by Torsion and out of the mare Princeton by Cornish Prince, a son of Bold Ruler.

Four of the 10 grand-get performers of Murrtheblurr are out of the 16-year-old blue hen mare Misty Blurr (out of Mamma Soul Kirk by Dr Kirk), and are all full siblings sired by the 2005 leading sire, Dash Ta Fame. Those four include the No. 1 performer Sir Patrick Blurr ($100,690), No. 2 Dashing Mistafier ($24,706), No. 3 Misty Blurr Ta Fame ($3,365), and the No. 5 performer, Soul Flame ($1,134).

The second-ranked maternal grandsire was Shawne Bug. Daughters of the 1974 son of Lady Bug's Moon produced 29 performing barrel horses that earned a total of $126,543 in 2005.

The No. 1 performer by Shawne Bug was the 6-year-old stallion Bully Bowlan Bug. Owned by Angela Ganter and campaigned primarily by Troy Crumrine, the son of Bully Bullion earned $32,380 in 2005.

Shawne Bug's No. 2 performer was the 2005 standout futurity mare Miss Brisco. The brown mare, by Brisco County Jr, and owned by Nancy Adkins of Marengo, Dashing Mistafier was the No. 2-ranked maternal grand-get performer of the Thoroughbred stallion Murrtheblurr. The gelding, out of the mare Misty Blurr, earned $24,706 in 2005.

Ohio, also was jockeyed by Troy Crumrine and earned $25,577 in 2005.
